

Love one another

"So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet." (Jn 13:14)

During his last supper with his disciples, Jesus stood up and took a towel.

He poured water in a basin and washed the feet of the apostles.

Then he sat down again and told them, "You too should wash one another's feet."

"My dad had a very bad car accident. He said that Jesus had saved his life.

When he got back home from the hospital, I had many opportunities to do acts of love for him. I gave him a glass of water, brought his slippers and handed him his medicine.

Every time he asked me for something, I helped him with it." (Marcos from Argentina)
