

Let's help those who suffer

"Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (Jn 20:21)

After the death of Jesus, the disciples were so scared that they stayed all together in one room, with the doors locked.

That night Jesus appeared to them and showed them his wounds. He told them, "Peace be with you!" The disciples were full of joy.

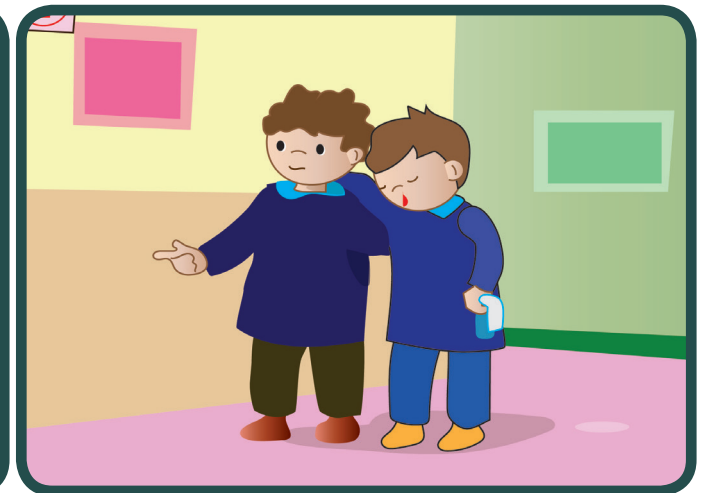

Then he gave them to task to bring the Good News of the Gospel everywhere in the world. Before leaving them, he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit" (see Jn 20:19-23)

Luke from the United States says: During a break at school, we were all playing ball together.

One of my friends was hit very hard with the ball.

Even though I had to stop playing, I went with him to get a bandage.
