

Directions to Ampleforth College

By road

From the South: Join the A64 (from the M1 or A1), turn onto the York bypass (A1237) just before York, then after several roundabouts, onto the Helmsley Road (B1363) which takes you via Stillington, Sutton on the Forest, Brandsby, Gilling East and Oswaldkirk. At Oswaldkirk turn left and the College is approximately two miles along this road.

From the North: The easiest route to follow is the A19, then the A170 at Thirsk, towards Scarborough. A couple of turnings signposted 'York' bring you down into Oswaldkirk village. Turn right at the foot of the hill and the College is approximately two miles along this road.

Mariapolis 2018

Beyond all borders

4th-8th April 2018, Ampleforth College

MARIAPOLIS is an annual gathering of the Focolare Movement which takes place in many countries all over the world. A retreat with a difference, the Mariapolis is a temporary 'town' built on the basis of love for each neighbour.

The theme this year is Beyond all Borders: Mariapolis is a place to open our hearts and minds to God and to one another, reaching beyond the barriers within and around us. With moments of reflection, sharing of real-life experiences and plenty of opportunity to relax together, we hope to build a piece of the united world that Jesus prayed for – 'That all may be one' (Jn. 17:21)

Set in the stunning Yorkshire countryside around Ampleforth Abbey, with programmes and activities for all ages, the Mariapolis is also an excellent destination for families. People of all backgrounds and expressions of faith are welcome to join us in this adventure!

Time

Registration starts at 4.30pm on Wednesday 4 April 2018.
The event will finish at 11.00am on Sunday 8 April 2018.
