

A circular, sepia-toned portrait of Chiara Lubich, a woman with dark hair, smiling and looking slightly to the side. The portrait is set against a light background with a subtle dot pattern.

JOURNEYING

IN

A celebration marking the hundredth anniversary of Chiara Lubich's birth

DIALOGUE

Saturday

18

January

2020

11am – 4pm

Elgar Concert Hall

Bramall Music Building

University of Birmingham

B15 2TT

Today we find our world fracturing under the strain of political division, economic inequality and climate emergency. Many want to work for unity, justice and peace

– but where to start?

Guest speakers (to date):

- Most Reverend Bernard Longley
Catholic Archbishop of Birmingham
- Sheikh Dr Mohammad Ali Shomali
Director of the International Institute for Islamic Studies
- Bhai Sahib Bhai Mohinder Singh Ji
Leader of the GNNSJ Sikh community Birmingham

Admission free but donations gratefully received to cover the cost of the day.

On this occasion, there will not be a separate programme for children.

Parking free on campus at weekends.

Please bring a packed lunch. Alternatively, snacks can be bought on the campus.

ALL WELCOME

to book a place:
www.eventbrite.co.uk

For further information

info@focolare.org.uk
www.focolare.org/gb

CHIARA
LUBICH
1920
2020