

Many streams... one river!

Focolare Summer Gathering – Ballycastle – 2nd-6th July 2014

The Focolare Movement is an international group which takes its inspiration from Jesus' last prayer, "May they all be one", (Jn. 17:21). Its aim is to bring people of all ages, nationalities and beliefs together in the spirit of "Many Streams, One River!", to share how they try to live for peace and unity in their everyday lives.

This year its summer gathering "Mariapolis" will take place in Ballycastle, Co. Antrim. People from all over the island of Ireland are excited about having the summer gathering in Northern Ireland for the first time. The Programme will include talks, workshops, sharing personal stories, reflection and dialogue, outings and fun activities with special programmes for teenagers and children.
