

Movements Working Together in Corrymeela

A group of friends from L'Arche and Focolare joined with the members of Corrymeela for their annual working weekend from 23rd-25th August. The weather was favourable and alongside the physical effort of gardening and clearing up the grounds there were many opportunities to catch up and share stories and experiences of living out our Christian faith in all our varying circumstances.