

Mary McAleese Message to Together for Europe

Mary McAleese, President of Ireland: “The message of Christ, a message without frontiers, simple and direct, commanded us to love one another. That commandment challenges us to transcend denominationalism, to rise above difference, to offer love to those whom we find it most difficult to love”