

UnityLab Argentina

Youth4unity are working for UnityLab which will take place in Argentina from 14th-28th July. It's all about uniting the world and working together to promote equality, raise awareness of poverty and experience different lifestyles in order to establish friendships which can grow and be a basis for a more peaceful world.