

Special All Saints Party in Limerick

A simple family home at the outskirts of Limerick became a celestial venue on 1st November when some heavenly figures gathered to celebrate their special feast day. Archangel Michael entered hand in hand with Queen Elizabeth of Hungary and Chiara of Assisi shared her seat with Mother Mary. It was heartening to listen to their stories recited with great feeling and love for their saint.