

International Education Congress

A group of nine, Principals, teachers and students, from North and South of Ireland, representing schools of different denominations, both secondary and primary will attend the International Education Conference "Learning Fraternity" from 6th-8th September. See link for more information.