

Easter – a time of renewal for all of us

In spite of the continuing coronavirus emergency, Easter is still a time to pass from death to life and darkness to light through love for our neighbour. The strength that comes from solidarity and universal fraternity help us to keep alive hope for a united world. Easter greetings from Focolare president, Margaret Karram, and many others all over the world.

Source: Focolare Movement