

“I believe!”

focolare movement

“Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe” (Jn 20:29).

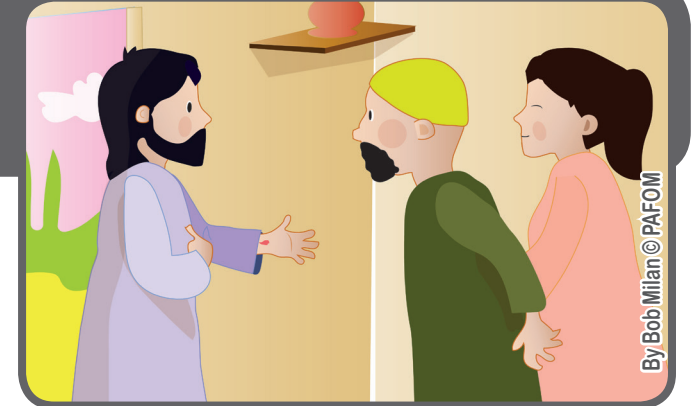

By Bob Milan © PAFOM

Jesus rose from the dead, just as he had promised! He appeared to some women and then to his apostles and other followers.

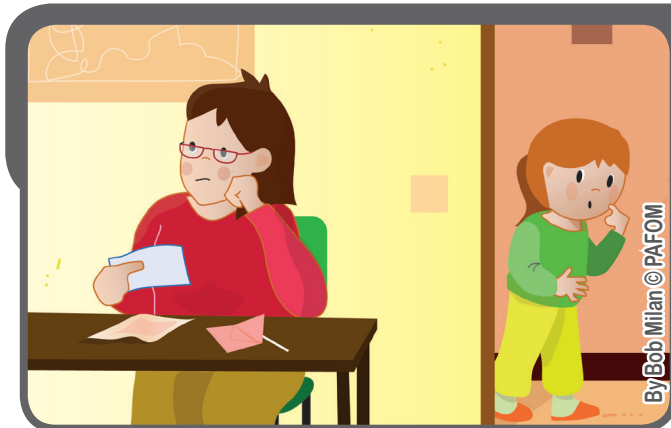

By Bob Milan © PAFOM

Thomas was one of the twelve apostles but he wasn't there when Jesus came. He said he wanted to see and touch him before he would believe.

By Bob Milan © PAFOM

One day the apostles were all together and Jesus appeared to them again. Thomas realized the Jesus was really alive. He had risen from the dead!

By Bob Milan © PAFOM

Isabel lives in Bolivia and her mom was very worried because she had lost her job and now they didn't have enough money to live on!

By Bob Milan © PAFOM

At every Gen meeting, Isabel and the other Gen 4 asked Jesus for help. They were sure that he would hear their prayer.

By Bob Milan © PAFOM

And he did! Isabel told her mom: “Do you know why you found a job? Because we asked Jesus for it!”