

Take care of the weakest ones

"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep" (Jn 10:11).

Jesus is like a good shepherd who knows his sheep and takes care of them.

When he got home, he realized that one lamb was missing and so he ran back to find it.

Even though he was tired from working all day, he looked and looked until he found it.

One day I was at home, playing with my construction kit. My little sister started crying.

She said she wanted our mother, but she was on the second floor and couldn't hear her crying.

So I tried to make her feel better. I look her hand and helped her go up the stairs to where our mother was working. (Bob - Canada)
