

Children's Word of Life - October 2019

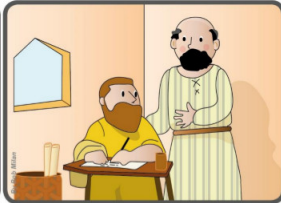

Give the joy of the Gospel to everyone

“Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us” (2 Tim 1:14)

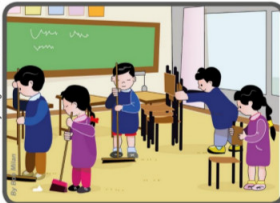

After Jesus went back to heaven, the Holy Spirit descended on the apostles, just as he had promised them.

The apostles became courageous and told everyone about all that Jesus had said and done.

All his words and the stories about his life were then written down in the Gospels, which have come down to us through the Church. Now we too can know and live the message of love that Jesus brought on earth.

Andreane from the Philippines: Andreane lives in Cebu in the Philippines. In her class, the children are in groups that take turns to clean up the classroom, put the chairs in order and sweep the floor, since there are always crumbs and pieces of paper on the floor after their snack time.

One day Andreane realized that there were only a couple of children in the other group to do the whole job. She told them with a big smile, “I can help you!” And she took the broom and started to sweep the floor.

Her teacher saw it and was very happy. She told Andreane: “Thank you! You are very generous!” Andreane later said: “I felt Jesus in my heart telling me that I should help them. I was very happy because I did act of love for my classmates.”

“Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.”
